

Christmas Caledonia – Song words

Caledonia

I don't know if you can see the changes that have come over me
In these last few days, I've been afraid that I might drift away I've been tellin' old stories, singing songs that make me think about where I came from
That's the reason why I seem so far away today

Let me tell you that I love you, and I think about you all the time
Caledonia you're calling me and now I'm going home
But if I should become a stranger, you know that it would make me more than
sad
Caledonia's been everything I've ever had

I have moved and I've kept on moving, proved the points that I needed proving Lost the friends that I needed losing, found others on the way
I have tried and I've kept on trying. Stolen dreams, yes there's no denying I have travelled hard sometimes with conscience flying somewhere in the wind

Let me tell you that I love you, and I think about you all the time
Caledonia you're calling me and now I'm going home
sad
Caledonia's been everything I've ever had

Now I'm sitting here before the fire, the empty room, the forest choir the flames that couldn't get any higher, they've withered, now they've gone
But I'm steady thinking my way is clear and I know what I will do tomorrow
When the hands have shaken and the kisses flow, then I will disappear

Let me tell you that I love you, and I think about you all the time
Caledonia you're calling me and now I'm going home
sad
Caledonia's been everything I've ever had

Caledonia's been everything I've ever had Caledonia's been everything I've ever had
