

I Am The Song

Music & words:
Boo Hewerdine

The sun will rise tomorrow
And the darkness will be gone
There's music in the passing time
And I am the song

Between each joy and sorrow
Just ask anyone
There's poetry in the everyday
And I am the song

I am the song I sung
When I was young
And it will never change
It found its way
Into my heart to stay
And the melody's pure
And our voices are strong
And I am the song
I am the song

And when the day is over
That's when the stars will come
This air will be in every dream
And I am the song

I am the song I sung
When I was young
And it will never change
It found its way
Into my heart to stay
And the melody's pure
And our voices are strong
And I am the song
I am the song

I am the song I sung
When I was young
And it will never change
It found its way
Into my heart to stay
And the melody's pure
And our voices are strong
And I am the song
I am the song
